Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement

This is a Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement (SPDS) dated 8 December 2022. It applies to all new policies commencing on or after 22 January 2023 and all renewal policies commencing on or after 28 February 2023.

This SPDS updates and should be read with the following Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and any other applicable SPDS we may have given you.

PDS	Reference	Preparation date
Toyota Insurance Comprehensive Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy and Product Disclosure Statement	TIN206	5 February 2021

Background to the change

The purpose of this SPDS is to remove the duty of disclosure and replace it with the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. This SPDS also provides information about the role and powers of the Code Governance Committee.

Changes to your PDS

The following table identifies the sections of the PDS where wording has been amended:

Section	SPDS Change

Duty not to make a misrepresentation	You must provide honest and correct answers to the specific questions we ask to enable us to decide whether to insure you and on what terms. (Refer to the section 'Your policy information – Duty not to make a misrepresentation' to find out more.)
Your policy information – Duty of disclosure	This section is deleted and replaced with the following: Duty not to make a misrepresentation This policy is a consumer insurance contract. This means you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us (your duty). Your duty applies before you enter into the policy, and also before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate the policy. Before you do any of these things, we may ask you questions and use the answers in deciding whether to insure you, and anyone else to be insured under the policy, and on what terms. To ensure you meet your duty, your answers to our questions must be honest and correct. If you fail to comply with your duty, we may be able to reduce or deny any claim that you make or cancel your policy, or both. If your failure is fraudulent, we may be able to refuse to pay your claim and treat your policy as never having existed.
Our Service Commitment to You – General Insurance Code of Practice	The following statement is added to this section: The Code Governance Committee is an independent body which monitors and enforces the Code and has powers to impose sanctions on Code subscribers for non-compliance.
